

AG2PI Field Day: Virtual Communication & Engagement Across Disciplines

"How to communicate across disciplines"

Stephanie Salasek

Look Up Communications

With energy and humor, Stephanie Salasek is all about measurable outcomes. She challenges her audiences to see it's not practice that makes perfect, but practice that makes permanent. She is a trained expert in emotional intelligence, presentation/professional presence, and customer service. With nearly 30 years of experience in education, private industry, and health care, you are guaranteed an engaging and empowering experience. When she's not speaking, you can find her measuring ingredients for her famous brownies or the incline on her treadmill.

"Engaging a virtual audience"

Matt Homann

The Filament

Matt Homann has a natural knack for helping really smart people think, meet and learn together better. An accomplished keynote speaker and creative facilitator, Matt has worked with legal, accounting, financial services, nonprofit, and healthcare professionals around the world, as well as with executives from companies like McDonald's, HP, IBM, British Petroleum, Nokia, DuPont and the US Military.

November 18, 2020

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM
(US Central Time)

Purpose

Offer training insight into how to effectively communicate with others, even across disciplines and especially in a virtual meeting space.

Register for this Zoom virtual meeting:

<https://tinyurl.com/y6l9ud9w>

Upon registration, you will receive a confirmation email with information about joining the meeting.

A recording will be available at ag2pi.org/ at a later date.

Agricultural Genome to Phenome Initiative (AG2PI) is funded by USDA-NIFA award 2020-70412-32615